

Owl Tricks

1. The captions under the picture on page 13 help the reader understand:

- A. The unique traits of different kinds of owls
- B. How feathers help the owl
- C. Animals with great eyesight
- D. How a trauma centre helps injured bats

2. Which meaning best matches the way the word notch is used in Section 1?

notch

/nəCH/

noun

- 1. an indentation or incision on an edge or surface.
"there was a notch in the end of the arrow for the bowstring"
- 2. NORTH AMERICAN
a deep, narrow mountain pass.

- A. 1
- B. 2

3.

The word plumage in page 14 refers to the owl's ...

- a. Eyes
- b. Size
- c. Feet
- d. Feathers

4. The section Itty-Bitty Owl is mainly about how the owl...

- a. Is from Mexico
- b. Fears scorpions
- c. Is small but can eat a scorpion
- d. Removes the scorpion's stinger

5. The photograph on page 23 helps the reader understand...
- e. Flying baby foxes fell 30 feet and covered the ground.
 - f. The flying foxes leave the aviary to explore the wild
 - g. Ways the Australian Clinic and Wildlife Trauma Care Centre help injured bats
 - h. Mango's wing is massaged to prevent scarring.
6. The word exhaustion in section 6 tells the reader that the caregiver is...
- a. scared
 - b. happy
 - c. tired
 - d. brushing
- How do you know? _____
7. The section "Bat Comeback" on p. 23 is mainly about...
- i. Mango can fly.
 - j. Volunteers feeding bats.
 - k. Bats aren't scary.
 - l. The newly healthy bats being released back into the wild.
8. The author wrote the owl articles mainly to...
- m. Explain the unique traits of different owl species
 - n. Show the reader that owls make good pets
 - o. Tell about owl eyes
 - p. Show how hurt bats are cared for at the Australian Bat Clinic
9. How do elf owls attack gopher snakes? P. 14
- a. They attack them from behind.
 - b. Gopher snakes aren't predators
 - c. They get into groups to gang up on the snake.
 - d. They play dead.