X Box One and PS 4

The X Box One wanted to play with someone. When he looked for someone to play with, he saw iPad mini walking along the street. "WHAT? Who wants to play that?" asked iPad mini. So Xbox One left. Then X Box One saw Wii U and asked him to play. "WHAT? My CD got stuck and I gotta run to Best Buy to get it fixed. So X Box One kept walking and asked PS 4 to play. He said "NO! My controller broke so now I can't play online." X Box One was tired and discouraged. Finally he asked iPad Air. He said, "YES! My battery is full and I can play." X Box One didn't want to hurt anyone's feelings so he asked all the other technology that said no before to play too. They played for hours!
