Surface Pro 3 and cat

One day Surface Pro 3 got a case for his tablet. His mom told him to go and play with his friends but he didn't have any. He ran into a cat. Surface Pro said, "Do you want to play? I have a tablet and you can use one of the apps." Cat said, "No, because I have no thumbs." So Surface Pro 3 kept walking and ran into Samsung Galaxy. Samsung said no because he needed to charge. Surface Pro 3 went to the grocery store and asked Orange to play. Orange said "no" in his mind because he cannot talk. Sad, Surface Pro 3 ran into charger and asked him to be his friend. "Sure!" said charger and they were friends all year long.
